HOW TO STUDY

Read the English explanation first. Study the French forms and examples. Say the examples aloud. Complete the practice page without looking at the answers. Review weak points after each group of five lessons.

Lesson 1 - French Alphabet and Pronunciation

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

French uses the Latin alphabet, but spelling and sound do not always match. Silent letters, nasal vowels, liaison, and accent marks are central to accurate pronunciation.

Core rules and patterns

French letter	Sound	Example
é	usually /e/	été = summer
è / ê	usually open /ɛ/	père, fête
ou	/u/	jour = day
oi	/wa/	moi = me
on / an / in	nasal vowels	nom, enfant, matin
ç	soft c /s/	garçon

Model examples

- Bonjour ! - Hello!
- Je m'appelle Léa. - My name is Léa.
- Il habite à Paris. - He lives in Paris.
- Le français est utile. - French is useful.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Practice slowly and listen for vowel quality, silent endings, and rhythm.

Lesson 1 Practice - French Alphabet and Pronunciation

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

bonjour - hello
merci - thank you école - school français - French garçon - boy

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Pronouncing every final consonant Better: Many final consonants are silent.
Compare petit, grand, vous.

Incorrect: Ignoring accents Better: Accents can change sound or meaning.
Compare a / à and ou / où.

Practice exercises

1. Read aloud: école, garçon, voiture, beaucoup.

2. Which accent appears in été?

3. What sound does oi usually represent?

4. Give one nasal-vowel word.

5. Translate: Bonjour.

6. Translate: Merci beaucoup.

7. What does ç do?

8. Write one French word with an accent.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 2 - Greetings and Introductions

LESSON OVERVIEW

French distinguishes informal and formal interaction. Use tu with familiar people and vous for formality, respect, or plural "you."

Core rules and patterns

French phrase	Meaning	Example
Bonjour	neutral daytime greeting	Bonjour, madame.
Bonsoir	evening greeting	Bonsoir, monsieur.
Salut	informal hi/bye	Salut, Paul !
Comment allez-vous ?	formal "How are you?"	Très bien, merci.
Je m'appelle...	state your name	Je m'appelle Anna.

Model examples

- Enchanté(e). - Nice to meet you.
- Comment vas-tu ? - How are you? (informal)
- Je suis de Madagascar. - I am from Madagascar.
- À bientôt ! - See you soon!

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Use complete mini-dialogues so that formal and informal choices become automatic.

Lesson 2 Practice - Greetings and Introductions

KEY VOCABULARY

salut - hi / bye
au revoir - goodbye bientôt - soon
nom - name pays - country

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Using tu in a formal interview
Better: Use vous unless invited to use tu.
Comment allez-vous ?

Incorrect: Saying Bonsoir in the morning Better: Use Bonjour.
Match greeting to time of day.

Practice exercises

1. Make a formal greeting.

2. Ask someone's name informally.

3. Answer: My name is Marie.

4. Say "Nice to meet you."

5. Ask "How are you?" formally.

6. Say "See you soon."

7. Translate: Je suis de Londres.

8. Write a four-line introduction.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 3 - Subject Pronouns and ÊTRE

LESSON OVERVIEW

Être means “to be.” It is irregular and essential for identity, description, nationality, location, and many compound tenses.

Core rules and patterns

Subject Pronoun	Form of Être	Example
je	suis	Je suis étudiant.
tu	es	Tu es prêt.
il/elle/on	est	Elle est française.
nous	sommes	Nous sommes ici.
vous	êtes	Vous êtes professeur.
ils/elles	sont	Ils sont contents.

Model examples

- Je suis fatigué. - I am tired.
- Nous sommes à l'école. - We are at school.
- Elle est française. - She is French.
- Vous êtes prêts ? - Are you ready?

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Memorize all six forms of être as one block.

Lesson 3 Practice - Subject Pronouns and ÊTRE

KEY VOCABULARY

être - to be prêt - ready fatigué - tired content - happy ici - here

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je est Better: Je suis
je takes suis.

Incorrect: Vous sont Better: Vous êtes
vous takes êtes.

Incorrect: Elles est Better: Elles sont plural subject takes sont.

Practice exercises

1. Complete: Je ___ ici.

2. Complete: Tu ___ prêt.

3. Complete: Nous ___ étudiants.

4. Complete: Vous ___ en classe.

5. Complete: Ils ___ contents.

6. Translate: She is French.

7. Translate: We are ready.

8. Write one sentence with être.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 4 - AVOIR and Common Expressions

LESSON OVERVIEW

Avoir means “to have.” French also uses avoir in many expressions where English uses “to be,” especially age, hunger, thirst, fear, and need.

Core rules and patterns

French subject	Form	Example
j'	ai	J'ai un livre.
tu	as	Tu as faim.
il/elle/on	a	Elle a vingt ans.
nous	avons	Nous avons soif.
vous	avez	Vous avez raison.
ils/elles	ont	Ils ont peur.

Model examples

- J'ai vingt ans. - I am twenty years old.
- Nous avons faim. - We are hungry.
- Elle a besoin d'aide. - She needs help.
- Vous avez raison. - You are right.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Learn avoir together with its fixed expressions, not only as “to have.”

Lesson 4 Practice - AVOIR and Common Expressions

KEY VOCABULARY

faim - hunger soif - thirst peur - fear besoin - need raison - reason / right

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je suis 20 ans Better: J'ai 20 ans
Age uses avoir.

Incorrect: Nous sommes faim Better: Nous avons faim Hunger uses avoir.

Incorrect: Ils avez Better: Ils ont
ils uses ont.

Practice exercises

1. Complete: J'___ faim.

2. Complete: Nous ___ deux enfants.

3. Translate: She is 30 years old.

4. Translate: They are afraid.

5. Complete: Vous ___ raison.

6. What does avoir besoin de mean?

7. Translate: I am thirsty.

8. Write one sentence with avoir.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 5 - Nouns: Gender and Number

LESSON OVERVIEW

Every French noun has grammatical gender. Plurals usually add -s, but several endings have special plural patterns. Learn nouns together with an article.

Core rules and patterns

Gender/Number	Rule	Example
masculine	often introduced by un/le	un livre
feminine	often introduced by une/la	une table
regular plural	usually add -s	livre → livres
-al plural	often -aux	journal → journaux
-eau plural	usually -eaux	bateau → bateaux
-s/-x/-z	often unchanged in spelling	nez → nez

Model examples

- Le livre est nouveau. - The book is new.
- La voiture est rouge. - The car is red.
- Les journaux sont ici. - The newspapers are here.
- Des bateaux arrivent. - Boats are arriving.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Always record a new noun with le/la or un/une.

Lesson 5 Practice - Nouns: Gender and Number

KEY VOCABULARY

livre - book table - table
journal - newspaper bateau - boat voiture - car

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Guessing gender only from meaning Better: Memorize article + noun.
Learn la voiture, le problème.

Incorrect: Adding -s to every plural Better: Some nouns change more.
journal → journaux.

Practice exercises

1. Plural of livre?

2. Plural of journal?

3. Plural of bateau?

4. Gender of voiture?

5. Translate: the books.

6. Translate: a table.

7. Make "un cheval" plural.

8. Write two noun pairs with articles.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 6 - Articles: Definite, Indefinite and Partitive

LESSON OVERVIEW

French articles agree with gender and number. Definite articles refer to known/general things; indefinite articles introduce countable items; partitive articles express an unspecified amount.

Core rules and patterns

Article type	Articles	Example
definite	le, la, l', les	le livre, l'école
indefinite	un, une, des	une maison
partitive	du, de la, de l', des	du pain, de l'eau
after negation	often de/d'	Je n'ai pas de café.
general meaning	definite article often used	J'aime le chocolat.

Model examples

- Je mange du pain. - I eat some bread.
- Elle achète une pomme. - She buys an apple.
- Nous aimons la musique. - We like music.
- Il ne boit pas de café. - He does not drink coffee.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Notice contractions: à + le = au; de + le = du; à + les = aux; de + les = des.

Lesson 6 Practice - Articles: Definite, Indefinite and Partitive

KEY VOCABULARY

pain - bread eau - water pomme - apple musique - music café - coffee

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je mange de le pain Better: Je mange du pain de + le contracts to du.

Incorrect: Pas du café after simple negation Better: pas de café
 Partitive/indefinite often becomes de after negation.

Practice exercises

1. Choose: ___ livre (a book).

2. Choose: ___ eau (some water).

3. Choose: ___ musique (music in general).

4. Negate: J'ai du sucre.

5. Translate: some bread.

6. Translate: the schools.

7. Choose: ___ voiture (a car).

8. Write one partitive sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 7 - Regular -ER Verbs in the Present

LESSON OVERVIEW

Most French verbs are -er verbs. Remove -er and add the present endings -e, -es, -e, -ons, -ez, -ent.

Core rules and patterns

French subject	Ending	Example
je	-e	je parle
tu	-es	tu parles
il/elle/on	-e	elle parle
nous	-ons	nous parlons
vous	-ez	vous parlez
ils/elles	-ent	ils parlent

Model examples

- Je travaille ici. - I work here.
- Nous habitons à Paris. - We live in Paris.
- Vous écoutez la radio. - You listen to the radio.
- Ils parlent français. - They speak French.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Practice the written endings and the fact that several spoken forms sound alike.

Lesson 7 Practice - Regular -ER Verbs in the Present

KEY VOCABULARY

parler - to speak travailler - to work habiter - to live
écouter - to listen
aimer - to like/love

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Nous parlez Better: Nous parlons
nous takes -ons.

Incorrect: Ils parlent with pronounced -ent Better: Final -ent is normally silent.
Focus on spoken endings.

Practice exercises

1. Conjugate parler with je.

2. Conjugate aimer with nous.

3. Conjugate habiter with vous.

4. Conjugate travailler with ils.

5. Translate: We speak French.

6. Translate: She likes music.

7. Make negative: Je travaille.

8. Write one -er verb sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 8 - Regular -IR and -RE Verbs

LESSON OVERVIEW

Many regular -ir verbs such as finir use -is, -is, -it, -issons, -issez, -issent. Regular -re verbs such as vendre use -s, -s, -, -ons, -ez, -ent.

Core rules and patterns

French Verb	Form	English
finir - je	finis	Je finis.
finir - nous	finissons	Nous finissons.
finir - ils	finissent	Ils finissent.
vendre - je	vends	Je vends.
vendre - nous	vendons	Nous vendons.
vendre - ils	vendent	Ils vendent.

Model examples

- Tu choisis un livre. - You choose a book.
- Nous finissons à cinq heures. - We finish at five.
- Il vend sa voiture. - He sells his car.
- Vous attendez le bus. - You wait for the bus.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Check whether an -ir verb follows the regular finir pattern; not all -ir verbs do.

Lesson 8 Practice - Regular -IR and -RE Verbs

KEY VOCABULARY

finir - to finish
choisir - to choose vendre - to sell attendre - to wait
répondre - to answer

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Nous finisent
Better: Nous finissons Use -issons.

Incorrect: Il vende
Better: Il vend
Third-person singular regular -re has no ending.

Practice exercises

1. Conjugate finir with je.

2. Conjugate choisir with nous.

3. Conjugate vendre with il.

4. Conjugate attendre with vous.

5. Translate: They finish.

6. Translate: I sell the book.

7. Make negative: Nous attendons.

8. Write one -ir sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 9 - Common Irregular Present-Tense Verbs

LESSON OVERVIEW

High-frequency verbs such as aller, faire, venir, prendre, pouvoir, vouloir, and devoir are irregular and must be learned as complete paradigms.

Core rules and patterns

Verb	Conjugation	Example
aller	vais, vas, va, allons, allez, vont	Je vais à l'école.
faire	fais, fais, fait, faisons, faites, font	Nous faisons du sport.
venir	viens, viens, vient, venons, venez, viennent	Elle vient demain.
prendre	prends, prends, prend, prenons, prenez, prennent	Ils prennent le bus.

Model examples

- Je peux venir. - I can come.
- Nous voulons apprendre. - We want to learn.
- Vous devez partir. - You must leave.
- Ils vont au marché. - They go to the market.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Use spaced repetition for irregular verbs; frequency matters more than memorizing rare forms.

Lesson 9 Practice - Common Irregular Present-Tense V

aller - to go
faire - to do/make venir - to come prendre - to take devoir - must / to have to

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Nous faisons Better: Nous faisons faire is irregular.

Incorrect: Ils prenent Better: Ils prennent
Double n in prennent.

Incorrect: Je alle Better: Je vais
aller is highly irregular.

Practice exercises

1. Present of aller with je?

2. Present of faire with nous?

3. Present of venir with ils?

4. Present of prendre with vous?

5. Translate: We can come.

6. Translate: I want to learn.

7. Translate: You must work.

8. Write one sentence with aller.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 10 - Adjectives: Agreement and Position

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

French adjectives generally agree in gender and number with the noun. Many follow the noun, while several common adjectives often precede it.

Core rules and patterns

Gender/Number	Adjective	Example
masculine singular	petit	un petit livre
feminine singular	petite	une petite maison
masculine plural	petits	des petits livres
feminine plural	petites	des petites maisons
common pre-noun adjectives	beau, bon, grand, jeune, petit, vieux	une belle ville

Model examples

- Une voiture rouge. - A red car.
- Un grand homme. - A great/tall man.
- Des étudiantes sérieuses. - Serious female students.
- Une belle journée. - A beautiful day.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Learn each adjective with its feminine form when irregular.

Lesson 10 Practice - Adjectives: Agreement and Position

KEY VOCABULARY

grand - big/tall petit - small beau - beautiful/handsome rouge - red sérieux - serious

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Une voiture rougeS Better: Une voiture rouge
Singular noun takes singular adjective.

Incorrect: Un belle livre Better: Un beau livre beau agrees with masculine singular.

Practice exercises

1. Agree: une fille (sportif).

2. Agree: des voitures (rouge).

3. Feminine of heureux?

4. Plural of grand?

5. Translate: a beautiful house.

6. Translate: serious students.

7. Place correctly: une / voiture / nouvelle.

8. Write one adjective sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 11 - Possessive, Demonstrative and Interrogative

LESSON OVERVIEW

Possessive adjectives agree with the thing possessed, not the owner. Demonstratives point out a noun. Interrogative quel agrees with the noun it modifies.

Core rules and patterns

English	French	Example
possessive	mon/ma/mes; ton/ta/tes; son/sa/ses	ma voiture
plural owners	notre/nos; votre/vos; leur/leurs	leurs livres
demonstrative	ce, cet, cette, ces	cet homme, cette femme
interrogative	quel, quelle, quels, quelles	Quelle heure ?

Model examples

- Mon ami arrive. - My friend is arriving.
- Cette maison est grande. - This house is big.
- Quels livres préfères-tu ? - Which books do you prefer?
- Leurs enfants sont ici. - Their children are here.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Possessive choice depends on the noun's gender/number, not the owner's gender.

Lesson 11 Practice - Possessive, Demonstrative and Interrogative

KEY VOCABULARY

mon - my masc.
cette - this/that fem.
ces - these/those quel - which/what leurs - their plural

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Ma ami
Better: Mon amie
Use mon before feminine noun beginning with vowel sound.

Incorrect: Ce école Better: Cette école
école is feminine.

Incorrect: Quel voiture Better: Quelle voiture quel agrees with feminine noun.

Practice exercises

1. Choose: ___ amie (my).

2. Choose: ___ homme (this).

3. Choose: ___ maisons (these).

4. Choose: ___ heure ? (what).

5. Translate: our school.

6. Translate: their books.

7. Translate: this car.

8. Write one question with quel.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 12 - Negation

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

The basic negative is ne ... pas around the conjugated verb. Other common negatives include ne ... jamais, ne ... plus, ne ... rien, and ne ... personne.

Core rules and patterns

English	French	Example
not	ne ... pas	Je ne comprends pas.
never	ne ... jamais	Il ne vient jamais.
no longer	ne ... plus	Nous ne travaillons plus.
nothing	ne ... rien	Je ne vois rien.
nobody	ne ... personne	Elle ne connaît personne.

Model examples

- Je n'aime pas le café. - I do not like coffee.
- Il ne mange jamais ici. - He never eats here.
- Nous n'avons plus de temps. - We no longer have time.
- Je ne vois rien. - I see nothing.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

In everyday speech ne is often dropped, but keep it in formal written French.

Lesson 12 Practice - Negation

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

jamais - never plus - no longer / more rien - nothing personne - nobody pas - not

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je pas comprends
Better: Je ne comprends pas
Negation surrounds the conjugated verb.

Incorrect: Ne pas after infinitive separated Better: ne pas + infinitive
Example: ne pas fumer.

Practice exercises

1. Negate: Je travaille.

2. Use jamais: Il vient ici.

3. Use plus: Nous avons du pain.

4. Translate: I see nothing.

5. Translate: Nobody is here.

6. Negate: Elle aime le thé.

7. What happens to du after simple negation?

8. Write one negative sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 13 - Questions and Question Words

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

French questions can use rising intonation, est-ce que, or inversion. Question words include qui, que/quoi, où, quand, pourquoi, comment, combien, and quel.

Core rules and patterns

Question style	Question	Register
intonation	Tu viens ?	informal spoken question
est-ce que	Est-ce que tu viens ?	neutral and clear inversion	Viens-tu ?	formal/written
where	où	Où habitez-vous ?
why	pourquoi	Pourquoi partez-vous ?
how much/many	combien	Combien ça coûte ?

Model examples

- Quand arrive-t-il ? - When does he arrive?
- Comment vous appelez-vous ? - What is your name?
- Qui est là ? - Who is there?
- Qu'est-ce que tu fais ? - What are you doing?

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Choose one question style appropriate to context and use it consistently.

Lesson 13 Practice - Questions and Question Words

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

qui - who où - where quand - when pourquoi - why comment - how

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Ou without accent for "where"

Better: où

Accent distinguishes où from ou = or.

Incorrect: Pourquoi tu pars? in formal writing

Better: Pourquoi pars-tu ? / Pourquoi est-ce que tu pars ?

Use a standard question structure.

Practice exercises

1. Ask: Where do you live?

2. Ask: Why are you learning French?

3. Ask: How much is it?

4. Make question: Tu viens.

5. Make formal question: Vous partez.

6. Translate: Who is there?

7. Translate: When does class start?

8. Write one est-ce que question.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 14 - Numbers, Dates and Time

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

French numbers have several special patterns, especially 70, 80, and 90. Dates usually follow day + month + year, and official time often uses the 24-hour clock.

Core rules and patterns

English	French	Pattern
70	soixante-dix	60 + 10
80	quatre-vingts	4 × 20; s when exact 80
90	quatre-vingt-dix	80 + 10
date	le 20 septembre 2026	day + month + year
time	Il est quatorze heures trente.	14:30

Model examples

- J'ai vingt-cinq ans. - I am twenty-five.
- Le cours commence à neuf heures. - Class starts at nine.
- Nous sommes le vingt septembre. - It is September twentieth.
- Il est midi. - It is noon.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Say numbers aloud; French number patterns become easier through rhythm and repetition.

Lesson 14 Practice - Numbers, Dates and Time

KEY VOCABULARY

heure - hour/time demi - half midi - noon
minuit - midnight
date - date

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: quatre-vingt-un with s
Better: quatre-vingt-un
No s when followed by another number.

Incorrect: le premier for every date Better: Only the first day is le premier; others use cardinal numbers.
le premier mai; le deux mai.

Practice exercises

1. Write 18 in words.

2. Write 42 in words.

3. Write 71 in words.

4. Write 95 in words.

5. Translate: It is 8:30.

6. Write September 20, 2026 in French.

7. What is noon?

8. Write your class time in French.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 15 - Prepositions of Place and Countries

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

French prepositions vary with cities, countries, continents, and specific locations. Country gender is important.

Core rules and patterns

English context	French preposition	Example
city	à	à Paris
feminine country	en	en France
masculine country	au	au Canada
plural country	aux	aux États-Unis
origin feminine/city	de / d'	de France, de Paris
origin masculine	du	du Canada

Model examples

- J’habite à Antananarivo. - I live in Antananarivo.
- Elle voyage en Italie. - She travels in Italy.
- Nous allons au Japon. - We are going to Japan.
- Il revient des États-Unis. - He returns from the United States.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Learn country names together with their article/gender.

Lesson 15 Practice - Prepositions of Place and Countries

Lesson 16 - Direct and Indirect Object Pronouns

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

Object pronouns replace nouns and normally come before the conjugated verb. Direct objects use le, la, les; indirect objects often use lui, leur.

Core rules and patterns

Object type	Pronoun	Example
direct singular	le / la	Je le vois. / Je la vois.
direct plural	les	Je les vois.
indirect singular	lui	Je lui parle.
indirect plural	leur	Je leur téléphone.
1st/2nd person	me, te, nous, vous	Il nous écoute.

- Je vois Marie. → Je la vois. - I see her.
- Nous appelons Paul. → Nous l'appelons.
- Je parle à Luc. → Je lui parle.
- Elle écrit à ses parents. → Elle leur écrit.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Identify whether the original noun is direct or introduced by à before choosing the pronoun.

Lesson 16 Practice - Direct and Indirect Object Pronouns

KEY VOCABULARY

le - him/it la - her/it les - them lui - to him/her leur - to them

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je vois le Better: Je le vois
Pronoun comes before conjugated verb.

Incorrect: Je parle le à Paul replacement Better: Je lui parle
Indirect person with à often becomes lui.

Practice exercises

1. Replace: Je vois Marie.

2. Replace: Nous regardons les films.

3. Replace: Je parle à Paul.

4. Replace: Elle écrit à ses parents.

5. Translate: I know him.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 17 - Y and EN

LESSON OVERVIEW

Y usually replaces a place or a phrase introduced by à (not usually a person). En usually replaces de + thing/place and quantities.

Core rules and patterns

French pattern	Meaning	Example
y - place	replaces à + place	Je vais à Paris → J'y vais.
y - à + thing	replaces à + thing	Je pense à mon travail → J'y pense.
en - de + thing	replaces de + thing	Je parle du problème → J'en parle.
en - quantity	keeps quantity expression	J'ai trois livres → J'en ai trois.

Model examples

- Tu vas au marché ? Oui, j'y vais. - Are you going to the market? Yes, I am.
- Elle parle de son projet. → Elle en parle.
- Nous avons deux voitures. → Nous en avons deux.
- Il pense à ses vacances. → Il y pense.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Y and en are extremely common in natural French; practice them in short fixed patterns.

Lesson 17 Practice - Y and EN

KEY VOCABULARY

y - there / to it
 en - some / of it / from there

KEY VOCABULARY

se lever - to get up se laver - to wash oneself se coucher - to go to bed se réveiller - to wake up s'habiller - to get dressed

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je lève me
Better: Je me lève
Reflexive pronoun comes before the verb.

Incorrect: Nous se levons Better: Nous nous levons
Pronoun agrees with subject.

Practice exercises

1. Conjugate se laver with je.

2. Conjugate se lever with nous.

3. Conjugate se coucher with ils.

4. Translate: She gets dressed.

5. Translate: We wake up early.

6. Negate: Je me couche tôt.

7. Write two routine sentences.

8. What pronoun goes with vous?

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 19 - Passé Composé with AVOIR

LESSON OVERVIEW

The passé composé expresses completed past actions. Most verbs use avoir + past participle.

Core rules and patterns

Verb ending	Participle	Example
-er participle	-é	parler → parlé
-ir participle	-i	finir → fini
-re participle	-u	vendre → vendu
faire	fait	j'ai fait
prendre	pris	j'ai pris
voir	vu	j'ai vu

Model examples

- J'ai travaillé hier. - I worked yesterday.
- Nous avons fini le projet. - We finished the project.
- Elle a vendu sa voiture. - She sold her car.
- Ils ont fait leurs devoirs. - They did their homework.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Start by choosing the auxiliary, then form the correct past participle.

Lesson 19 Practice - Passé Composé with AVOIR

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

hier - yesterday
 déjà - already encore - again/still fait - done/made pris - taken

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: J'ai parler
 Better: J'ai parlé
 Past participle of -er ends in -é.

Incorrect: Nous avons finit Better: Nous avons fini
 finir → fini.

Incorrect: Ils ont prendu Better: Ils ont pris prendre → pris.

Practice exercises

1. Form: je / parler.

2. Form: nous / finir.

3. Form: elle / vendre.

4. Past participle of faire?

5. Past participle of prendre?

6. Translate: I saw the film.

7. Translate: They worked yesterday.

8. Write one passé composé sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 20 - Passé Composé with ÊTRE

LESSON OVERVIEW

A smaller group of movement/change-of-state verbs and all reflexive verbs use être in the passé composé. The past participle usually agrees with the subject.

Core rules and patterns

French Verb	Participle	Example
aller	allé(e)(s)	Elle est allée.
venir	venu(e)(s)	Ils sont venus.
arriver	arrivé(e)(s)	Nous sommes arrivés.
partir	parti(e)(s)	Elles sont parties.
naître	né(e)(s)	Il est né en 2000.
reflexive	être auxiliary	Je me suis levé(e).

Model examples

- Marie est arrivée à huit heures. - Marie arrived at eight.
- Ils sont partis hier. - They left yesterday.
- Nous sommes allées en ville. - We went to town (female group).
- Je me suis réveillé tôt. - I woke up early.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Agreement with être is a key written-language rule; mark gender and number carefully.

Lesson 20 Practice - Passé Composé with ÊTRE

KEY VOCABULARY

arriver - to arrive partir - to leave naître - to be born mourir - to die
rester - to stay

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Elle est arrivé Better: Elle est arrivée Agree feminine singular.

Incorrect: Ils ont allé Better: Ils sont allés aller uses être.

Incorrect: Je me suis lever Better: Je me suis levé(e)
Use past participle.

Practice exercises

1. Form: elle / aller.

2. Form: ils / partir.

3. Form: nous (f.) / arriver.

4. Form: je / se lever.

5. Translate: She came yesterday.

6. Translate: They stayed at home.

7. Which auxiliary does aller use?

8. Write one être passé composé sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 21 - Imparfait

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

The imparfait describes past habits, repeated actions, background situations, states, and actions in progress.

Core rules and patterns

Form	Rule	Example
formation	nous present stem -ons + endings	nous parlons → parl-
endings	-ais, -ais, -ait, -ions, -iez, -aient	je parlais
être	irregular stem ét-	j'étais, nous étions
habit	repeated past action	Quand j'étais petit, je jouais.
background	weather/time/state	Il faisait froid.

Model examples

- Je lisais quand tu as appelé. - I was reading when you called.
- Nous habitions près de l'école. - We lived near the school.
- Il pleuvait. - It was raining.
- Quand j'étais enfant, je jouais dehors. - I used to play outside.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

The imparfait “paints the scene”; completed events often use the passé composé.

Lesson 21 Practice - Imparfait

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

souvent - often toujours - always autrefois - formerly pendant que - while enfant - child

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je parlait Better: Je parlais
 je takes -ais.

Incorrect: Nous étions from sommes stem
 Better: être is irregular with ét-.
 Memorize j'étais, etc.

Practice exercises

1. Imparfait of parler / je.

2. Imparfait of finir / nous.

3. Imparfait of être / ils.

4. Translate: I was reading.

5. Translate: It was cold.

6. Complete: Quand j'étais petit, je ____ (jouer).

7. Name one habitual marker.

8. Write one background sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 22 - Passé Composé vs Imparfait

LESSON OVERVIEW

These two past tenses often work together. Passé composé advances completed events; imparfait describes background, habits, and ongoing situations.

Core rules and patterns

Context / Usage	French Tense	Example
completed event	passé composé	Hier, j'ai acheté un livre.
habit	imparfait	Chaque été, nous allions à la mer.
background	imparfait	Il faisait beau.
interruption	imparfait + passé composé	Je dormais quand il a appelé.
sequence	passé composé	Il est entré, a parlé et est parti.

Model examples

- Pendant que je cuisinais, Paul est arrivé. - While I was cooking, Paul arrived.
- Il pleuvait quand nous sommes sortis. - It was raining when we went out.
- J'ai étudié trois heures hier. - I studied for three hours yesterday.
- Quand j'étais jeune, je lisais beaucoup. - When I was young, I read a lot.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Ask whether the speaker views the action as complete or as background/ongoing.

Lesson 22 Practice - Passé Composé vs Imparfait

KEY VOCABULARY

pendant que - while
quand - when soudain - suddenly chaque - each/every hier - yesterday

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Chaque jour j'ai joué
Better: Chaque jour je jouais Habit → imparfait.

Incorrect: Soudain il pleuvait
Better: Soudain, il a commencé à pleuvoir
Sudden completed change → passé composé.

Practice exercises

1. Choose: Hier, je ____ (travailler) trois heures.

2. Choose: Quand j'étais enfant, je ____ (jouer).

3. Complete: Je dormais quand il ____ (arriver).

4. Which tense describes background?

5. Which tense marks completed events?

6. Translate: It was late, so we left.

7. Write one sentence with both tenses.

8. Explain why imparfait is used for weather background.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 23 - Future: Futur Proche and Futur Simple

LESSON OVERVIEW

Futur proche uses aller + infinitive for near/intended future. Futur simple expresses future facts, predictions, promises, and more neutral or formal future actions.

Core rules and patterns

Form	Rule	Example
near future	aller present + infinitive	Je vais partir.
regular future	infinitive + endings	je parlerai
future endings	-ai, -as, -a, -ons, -ez, -ont	nous finirons
irregular stems	ser-, aur-, ir-, fer-, viendr-	je serai, j'aurai

Model examples

- Je vais étudier ce soir. - I am going to study tonight.
- Demain, je travaillerai. - Tomorrow I will work.
- Nous serons prêts. - We will be ready.
- Ils auront du temps. - They will have time.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Use futur proche for plans/intention; use futur simple for neutral future or predictions.

Lesson 23 Practice - Future: Futur Proche and Futur Simple

KEY VOCABULARY

demain - tomorrow
bientôt - soon
avenir - future prochain - next ce soir - tonight

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Je vais partirai
Better: Je vais partir / Je partirai
Do not combine both future structures.

Incorrect: Je êtreai Better: Je serai
être has irregular stem ser-.

Practice exercises

1. Make near future: je / manger.

2. Future simple: je / parler.

3. Future simple: nous / finir.

4. Future of être / ils.

5. Future of avoir / vous.

6. Translate: We are going to travel.

7. Translate: She will come tomorrow.

8. Write one prediction.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 24 - Conditional Present

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

The present conditional expresses polite requests, wishes, advice, and hypothetical results. It generally uses the future stem + imparfait endings.

Core rules and patterns

Form / Usage	Rule	Example
formation	future stem + -ais, -ais, -ait, -ions, -iez, -aient	je parlerais polite request	voudrais / pourriez	Je voudrais un café.
hypothesis	si + imparfait → conditional	Si j'avais le temps, je voyagerais.
advice	devrais	Tu devrais étudier.

Model examples

- Je voudrais réserver une chambre. - I would like to book a room.
- Pourriez-vous m'aider ? - Could you help me?
- Si j'étais riche, je voyagerais. - If I were rich, I would travel.
- Vous devriez pratiquer. - You should practice.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

The conditional is especially valuable for polite service, travel, and professional communication.

Lesson 24 Practice - Conditional Present

KEY VOCABULARY

voudrais - would like pourrais - could devrais - should aimerais - would like/love si - if

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Si j'aurais
Better: Si j'avais
After si in this pattern, use imparfait, not conditional.

Incorrect: Je voudrai un café for polite request
Better: Je voudrais un café
Conditional is polite; future means "I will want."

Practice exercises

1. Conditional of parler / je.

2. Conditional of finir / nous.

3. Translate: I would like a coffee.

4. Translate: Could you help me?

5. Complete: Si j'avais le temps, je ____.

6. Give advice with devoir.

7. What tense follows si in the common hypothetical pattern?

8. Write one polite conditional request.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 25 - Relative Pronouns: QUI, QUE, OÙ, DONT

LESSON OVERVIEW

Relative pronouns connect clauses and avoid repetition. Qui is usually the subject, que the direct object, où refers to place/time, and dont replaces de + noun.

Core rules and patterns

Relative Pronoun	Function	Example
que/qu'	direct object	Le livre que je lis...
où	place/time	La ville où j'habite...
dont	de + noun	Le projet dont je parle...

Model examples

- Voici l'homme qui travaille ici. - Here is the man who works here.
- C'est le livre que j'aime. - It is the book that I like.
- Paris est la ville où je suis né. - Paris is the city where I was born.
- Voilà le sujet dont nous parlons. - That is the topic we are talking about.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Find the grammatical role inside the relative clause before choosing the pronoun.

Lesson 25 Practice - Relative Pronouns: QUI, QUE, OÙ,

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

qui - who/that - subject que - whom/that - object où - where/when dont - whose/of which/about which relier - to connect

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Le livre qui je lis Better: Le livre que je lis
 The book is object of lis.

Incorrect: La personne que parle
 Better: La personne qui parle
 The person is subject of parle.

Practice exercises

1. Choose: La femme ___ parle.

2. Choose: Le film ___ je regarde.

3. Choose: La ville ___ j'habite.

4. Choose: Le projet ___ je parle.

5. Combine: J'aime ce livre. Ce livre est intéressant.

6. Translate: the man who works here.

7. Translate: the city where I live.

8. Write one relative-clause sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 26 - Comparatives and Superlatives

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

French compares qualities with plus, moins, and aussi. Superlatives use le/la/les plus or moins. Bon and bien have irregular comparative forms.

Core rules and patterns

English	French	Example
more ... than	plus ... que	plus grand que less ... than	moins ... que	moins cher que
as ... as	aussi ... que	aussi rapide que
superlative	le/la/les plus ...	la plus grande
good/better	bon → meilleur	un meilleur résultat
well/better	bien → mieux	Il travaille mieux.

Model examples

- Paul est plus grand que Marc. - Paul is taller than Marc.
- Ce livre est moins cher. - This book is cheaper.
- Elle est aussi rapide que lui. - She is as fast as him.
- C'est la meilleure solution. - It is the best solution.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Distinguish meilleur (adjective) from mieux (adverb).

Lesson 26 Practice - Comparatives and Superlatives

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

plus - more moins - less aussi - as meilleur - better/best mieux - better (adverb)

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: plus bon Better: meilleur
Use meilleur for adjective bon.

Incorrect: plus bien Better: mieux
Use mieux for adverb bien.

Practice exercises

1. Translate: bigger than.

2. Translate: less expensive than.

3. Translate: as fast as.

4. Superlative: the biggest house.

5. Comparative of bon?

6. Comparative of bien?

7. Compare two cities in French.

8. Write one superlative sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 27 - Adverbs

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

Adverbs modify verbs, adjectives, other adverbs, or whole sentences. Many adverbs are formed from the feminine adjective + -ment.

Core rules and patterns

Formation	Rule	Example
regular formation	feminine adjective + -ment	heureuse → heureusement
-ant → -amment	constant → constamment
-ent → -emment	prudent → prudemment
common irregular	bien, mal, vite, beaucoup, peu	Il travaille bien.

Model examples

- Elle parle lentement. - She speaks slowly.
- Il travaille très bien. - He works very well.
- Nous voyageons souvent. - We often travel.
- Heureusement, tout va bien. - Fortunately, everything is fine.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
 Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
 Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Learn frequent adverbs as vocabulary and notice their common sentence positions.

Lesson 27 Practice - Adverbs

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

souvent - often toujours - always vite - quickly lentement - slowly heureusement - fortunately

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: rapide → rapidment
 Better: rapidement
 Use the appropriate adjective stem.

Incorrect: bien after noun as adjective
 Better: bon/bonne
 Bien is generally adverb; bon is adjective.

Practice exercises

1. Form adverb from lent.

2. Form adverb from heureux.

3. Translate: She speaks slowly.

4. Translate: He works well.

5. Give adverb for "often".

6. Difference between bon and bien?

7. Place souvent: Je ___ travaille ___.

8. Write one sentence with an adverb.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 28 - Conjunctions and Complex Sentences

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

Conjunctions connect ideas and help build logical, fluent sentences. Some simply coordinate; others introduce dependent clauses.

Core rules and patterns

English meaning	French	Example
addition	et, aussi, de plus	Il lit et il écrit.
contrast	mais, pourtant, cependant	Il est fatigué, mais il continue.
cause	parce que, puisque	Je reste parce qu'il pleut.
result	donc, alors	Il pleut, donc je reste.
time	quand, lorsque, pendant que	Quand il arrive, nous partons.
condition	si	Si tu viens, appelle-moi.

Model examples

- Je travaille parce que je veux réussir. - I work because I want to succeed.
- Il est fatigué, pourtant il continue. - He is tired, yet he continues.
- Quand tu arrives, téléphone-moi. - When you arrive, call me.
- Nous resterons si nécessaire. - We will stay if necessary.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.
Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.
Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

Use connectors to show the relationship between ideas, not only to make sentences longer.

Lesson 28 Practice - Conjunctions and Complex Sentences

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

mais - but parce que - because donc - therefore/so pourtant - however/yet
quand - when

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Parce que at start without main clause Better: Complete the idea.
Parce qu'il pleut, je reste.

Incorrect: Using donc for cause
Better: donc gives result, parce que gives cause.
Il pleut, donc je reste.

Practice exercises

1. Join with parce que: Je reste. Il pleut.

2. Join with pourtant: Il est fatigué. Il continue.

3. Join with donc: Elle étudie. Elle réussit.

4. Translate: When he arrives, we leave.

5. Translate: If you come, call me.

6. Name one contrast connector.

7. Name one cause connector.

8. Write one complex sentence.

Check your answers in the answer-key section near the end of the book.

Lesson 29 - Imperative and Commands

English explanations • French examples with English meaning

LESSON OVERVIEW

The imperative gives commands, instructions, invitations, and advice. It generally uses tu, nous, and vous forms without subject pronouns.

Core rules and patterns

Form	Rule	Example
tu -er	often present form without final s	Parle !
nous	same as present nous without pronoun	Parlons !
vous	same as present vous without pronoun	Parlez !
negative	ne ... pas around command	Ne parle pas !
pronouns affirmative	often attach after verb	Donne-le-moi !

Model examples

- Écoutez attentivement. - Listen carefully.
- Allons-y ! - Let's go!
- Ne touchez pas ! - Do not touch!
- Dis-moi la vérité. - Tell me the truth.

LANGUAGE BUILDING

Notice: Compare the French forms above and identify the part that changes.

Produce: Create two new French sentences using this lesson pattern.

Speak: Read the model examples aloud twice, then say one example without looking.

STUDY TIP

The imperative is common in instructions, recipes, signs, and classroom language.

Lesson 29 Practice - Imperative and Commands

Vocabulary • Common errors • Guided practice

KEY VOCABULARY

écouter - to listen
aller - to go donner - to give dire - to say/tell attention - attention

COMMON ERRORS

Incorrect: Tu parle!
Better: Parle !
Remove subject; -er tu usually drops final s.

Incorrect: Ne pas parle!
Better: Ne parle pas !
Negative surrounds the imperative form.

Practice exercises

1. Command tu: parler.

2. Command nous: aller.

3. Command vous: écouter.

4. Negative tu: parler.

5. Translate: Let's go!

6. Translate: Tell me!

7. Translate: Do not touch!

MEMORY STRATEGY

Study irregular verbs in families: venir/tenir, prendre/apprendre/comprendre, mettre/permettre, écrire/décrire. Create one present, one past, and one future sentence for each high-frequency verb.

Key Conjugation Tables

Present, imperfect, future and conditional endings

Form	je	tu	il/elle	on	vous	ils/elles
Present -ER	-e	-es	-e	-ons	-ez	-ent
Present -IR (finir)	-is	-is	-it	-issons	-issez	-issent
Present -RE	-s	-s	—	-ons	-ez	-ent
Imparfait	-ais	-ais	-ait	-ions	-iez	-aient
Future	-ai	-as	-a	-ons	-ez	-ont
Conditional	-ais	-ais	-ait	-ions	-iez	-aient

FORMATION REMINDERS

Passé composé: present of avoir/être + past participle.

Imparfait: take nous present form, remove -ons, add imparfait endings (except être: ét-).

Future: infinitive or irregular future stem + future endings.

Conditional: future stem + imparfait endings.

AGREEMENT CHECK
